

FEEDBACK FORM ANALYSIS REPORT

Tutor's Feedback Form Analysis (Session 2018-19)

According to the feedback data collected from the Faculty members/ Instructors of the of the Department of Political Sciencethe overall ranking for the re-requisite knowledge of the students studying the M.A degree courses is 'average' which directly gets reflected in their quality of interactions. The attendance rate is 'below average' with significant number of drop-outs especially from amongst the students coming from poor economic backgrounds.

The department is paying keen attention to make infrastructural developments and induct innovative ways of teaching and learning to help sustain, motivate and attract students. The syllabus and curriculum are updated and modified at regular intervals in order to provide the best learning experiences to its students. Procurement of books and making the university as rich hub of academic resources in the region is a much-sought goal of the department.

Sutapa Chatterjee Sarkar
27.6.19

Department of Political Science
West Bengal State University